Dear resident

This letter is being sent to all Curnock Street Estate residents.

The London Borough of Camden recently obtained an Anti-Social Behaviour Order (ASBO) against Angie Dawn Higgins due to her drug related antisocial behaviour in the Camden Town area and on your estate.

Evidence of Higgins' drug use on your estate was presented to the court and the court ordered that she must not enter the Curnock Street Estate and a wider Camden Town area.

The order obtained against Angie Higgins prevents her from:

- entering your estate
- having in her possession or control, in any location, any drugs paraphernalia made, adapted or intended for use in relation to the supply, production or consumption of any controlled drug, other than any needle or syringe that is capped
- behaving in a way that causes or is likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to any person not of the same household as herself

The order to remain in force for five years.

We know that residents on the estate continue to experience this type of antisocial behaviour and taking legal action of this type is always a last resort. However, if people repeatedly cause our residents harassment, alarm and distress we will seek to protect you in this way. If you see Angie Higgins on your estate call the Safer Neighbourhoods Team or Housing Patrol on the numbers below.

Reporting antisocial behaviour

- Call 999 to report urgent incidents
- The police Safer Neighbourhoods number for non-emergencies is 020 8721 2810 or email stpancras.somerstown.snt@met.police.uk
- Housing Patrol – call 020 7974 8205, 6pm-2am every day. If the Patrol witness any activity they will report this back to the Housing Office and can be witnesses in court
- Or call your Estate Officer or Patch Manager on 020 7974 4422 (office hours).
